

Addiction Medicine and Clinical Research Fellowship Application 2020-2022

Please submit the completed application electronically to liserman@institute.org along with the requested attachments.

Name:

Email address:

Telephone:

Mailing address:

Are you currently eligible to receive a NY State Medical License, or will you be eligible by June of 2020? Yes

 No

Do you meet any of the following eligibility requirements? (check all that apply)

I am a graduate of a Medical School located in New York State

I am a graduate of (or currently in) a Residency program of which the sponsoring Institution is located in New York State

I have resided in New York state since or before March of 2019

My Residency program was in Family Medicine or Internal Medicine

None of the above apply

Please provide a personal statement (1-3 pages) in which you describe the following:

- 1) Interest in addiction medicine and research.
- 2) Trainings and clinical activities that are relevant to substance use disorders.
- 3) Trainings or activities related to research (if any).
- 4) Your career goals.

CV (Please include the Following):

- 1) All educational information (date, degree, institution, location)
 - a. Undergraduate
 - b. Medical School
 - c. Internship/Residency Training
 - d. Fellowships, if applicable
 - e. Any other
- 2) All work/volunteer experience since completing residency training (dates, title, organization, location)
- 3) Any published manuscripts, abstracts, posters, and presentations
- 4) All languages spoken (and proficiency)

Letters of Recommendation/Reference:

Please submit 3 letters of recommendation/ reference via email.

If possible, one letter should speak to your experience or abilities as a researcher.

Research experience is not required for eligibility in this Fellowship.